Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 9. to Saturday February 13. 1741.

Petersbourg, January 16.

WE have an Account of the Death of the greateſt Part of the Swediſh Priſoners on the Road to Moſcow. All the Senators, the Generality, and the Synod, were aſſembled the 14th, to the Number of 35 Perſons, to aſſiſt at the Report of the Trial of the Priſoners, and to pronounce Judgment on them; and as the Czarina came very late to the Drawing Room that Evening, it is not doubted but their Sentence was laid before her Majeſty. The Felt Marſhal Lacy is out of Danger, but has not recovered his Strength.

Petersbourg, Jan. 19. Count Oſterman, the Felt Marſhal Munich, Count Golofkin, Preſident Mengden, the Grand Marſhal, Count Lowenwolde, and a Secretary, were Yeſterday brought from the Citadel to the Place before the Colleges, where a Scaffold was erected, upon which, about Ten of the Clock, Count Oſterman was carried in a Chair, when the Enumeration of the Crimes laid to his Charge, containing five Sheets of Paper, was read to him by a Secretary, his Excellency all that time bare headed, and with an attentive but firm Countenance liſtening to it; at laſt his Sentence was pronounced, which was to be broke on the Wheel; however no Preparations for ſo terrible an Execution were there, inſtead of them there were two Blocks with Axes by them, and he was immediately drawn forward out of his Chair by the Soldiers, and his Head laid on one of the Blocks, when the Executioner approached and unbutton'd the Collar of his Shirt and Night-Gown he had on, and laid bare his Neck; this Ceremony took up about a Minute, when it was declared to him that his capital Puniſhment was, by her Majeſty, changed into a perpetual Baniſhment, upon this he was lifted up by the Soldiers and replaced on his Chair, and went thro' the whole without any Change of Countenance. The Sentences of the other Five, who ſtood below round the Scaffold, were afterwards read to them in the Order beforementioned; that of the Felt Marſhal was to be quarter'd; of the other four to be beheaded, but the Change into Baniſhment was as ſoon declared to each; the four had all long Beards, but the Felt Marſhal was ſhaved, well dreſs'd, and with an erect, intrepid, and unconcern'd a Countenance, as if he had been at the Head of an Army. It is ſaid, that Count Oſterman ſet out laſt Night, and the others will ſoon follow, if not gone. He is to be tranſported to Boreſowa; the Felt Marſhal Munich to Pelim in Siberia: Cnez Menzikoff was formerly at the firſt Place, and the late Duke of Courland is actually at the laſt; the others are to be carried to different Places, where the two Brothers Carl and Guſtave Biron, and General Biſmarc were, ſo that the Biron Family will be removed, but to what Place is uncertain. All their Eſtates real and perſonal are confiſcated. Thoſe of their Wives however are not ſubject to Confiſcation, by an Ordonnance of Peter the Firſt, and they are allow'd, by her Majeſty, to follow their Husbands if they pleaſe. Young Count Munich is to be ſent to one of his Father's Eſtates in the Ukraine, (his own in Livonia being confiſcated) after having engaged by Oath and in Writing that he will not go out of the Country. His Order of the White Eagle, as well as his Father's, and that of Preſident Mengden have been delivered to the Saxon Secretary to be return'd to the King of Poland, but it is ſaid, that Count Lowenwolde's Order of the Black Eagle has not been yet ſent to M. Mardefeldt. Yeſterday Morning between Eight and Nine, her Majeſty went to Czarskoi Meuſe, from whence ſhe will return To-morrow. The late Senator Streſchnoff, Counteſs Oſterman's Brother, has been made Waywode of the Diſtrict where all the unfortunate Exiles are to remain, and he is to have the Care and Inſpection of them. The Commiſſary of War Lapokin, who was under Arreſt ever ſince the Change, has been made Governor of Archangel, and M. Nepluef of Samara on the Wolga. It is juſt now ſaid, that Count and Counteſs Oſterman ſet out this Morning about Two, both their Sons, who were Captains of the Guards, are to have Companies in marching Regiments, and her Majeſty has promiſed to provide a Match for the Daughter: They were all three allow'd to take Leave of their Father. Prince Lewis is ſtill here.

Vienna, Jan. 27, N. S. Konigſeck's and Daun's Regiments of Foot, with 14 Companies of Tyrolians, and as many Waradiners, and People of the Neighbourhood of Carlſtadt as with the others amount to the Number of 14000 in all, are ſuppoſed to be entered by Kufſtain into Bavaria. Brunau is ſummoned, and the Auſtrians are already Maſters of the Town of Paſſau. The Garriſon, to the Number of 1200 Men, is ſaid to be retired into the Caſtle.

Vienna, Jan. 31, N. S. Marſhal Khevenhuller is at Paſſau with the beſt Part of the Cavalry, while the reſt of the Army is marched by Wels towards Brunau. The 14000 Men entred into Bavaria by Kufſtain, will come down the Inn, while the others proceed up that River, ſo that they will meet, it is ſuppoſed, at or about Burkhauſen, from whence there is but a ſmall Cut to Munich. When upon the Iſſer, the Auſtrians ſtrians are Maſters of all Bavaria. Nothing can be equal to the Conſternation ſpread over that whole Electorate. The Peaſants and Militia within the Reach of the Auſtrians have for the moſt Part given up their Arms and Accoutrements, and great Quantities of Proviſions of all Sorts have been found every where.

Vienna, Feb. 7. The Garriſon at Brunau, conſiſting of 2000 Men, though moſtly Militia, evacuated that Place upon the Approach of the Auſtrians. Straubing continues blocked only, it having been impoſſible for Count Khevenhuller, who is ſtill at Paſſau, to get up his Artillery, on account of the bad Roads occaſioned by the late Thaw.

Genoa, Jan. 31, N. S. Two Days ago arrived here an Engliſh Ship from Gibraltar, the Maſter whereof reports, that on the 26th Inſtant he was about 17 Leagues to the Eaſtward of Mahone, when he ſaw nine Sail of large Ships, who were plying to the Weſtward with the Wind at S. W. and to the beſt of his Judgment, he thinks it was Commodore Leſtock; one of the largeſt Ships had loſt her Bowſprit and Foremaſt. Juſt now is arrived an Eſtafette from Porto Spetia to this Republick, with Advice of the Arrival there Yeſterday of the Spaniſh and French Fleets. It is ſaid they intend to fortify the Place in the ſtrongeſt Manner, to prevent any Ships from entring into the Harbour; for which Purpoſe, Batteries are to be raiſed at the Entrance of the Port, as alſo upon a little Iſland within the Mouth of the Harbour. This Republick has ſent away about 200 Men to reinforce the Garriſon there.

Genoa, Feb. 7. The combined Fleets are at Porto Spetia, making Diſpoſitions to ſecure themſelves, as well as they can, from any Attack. They have four Ships out on the Cruize, one French Frigate is off Cape Corſe, and three Spaniſh Men of War between Porto Spetia and Cape dell Mell; ſo that this Port is in a Manner blocked up. Several Tranſports with Troops are arrived.

Dreſden, Feb. 11. It was reported Yeſterday, that a Detachment from Kevenhuller's Army had blockaded Munich, and ſummon'd the Governor to ſurrender the Town in 24 Hours, and to pay 300,000 Florins for its Redemption from Pillage. M. Rees arrrived here the 8th Inſtant as Envoy Extraordinary from his Pruſſian Majeſty to this Court; and M. Beſtuchef left it the ſame Day for Petersbourg, having received three Eſtafettes in two Days to preſs his Return. M. Sechelle has ſent to Marſhal Broglio from Prague, all the Pontoons that were there.

Dreſden, Feb. 14, N. S. It is aſſured that General Stentz, at the Head of 10,000 Men, has entred into Bavaria from the Side of the Tirol, and that the Capital is under Contribution. The King of Poland has been pleaſed to make Count Bruhl the Miniſter, General of Foot, and to give him the Command of 1200 Men his Poliſh Majeſty is allowed to have in Poland, independent of the Republick.

Hambourg, Feb. 13, N. S. There are Letters of the 30th of January, N. S. which bring Advice, that the young Duke of Holſtein was then arrived at Libaw, in the Dutchy of Courland, from whence that Prince was to proceed the Day following, and that the remaining Part of his Route was laid out in ſuch a Manner, that it was hoped his Highneſs would reach Petersbourg the 11th or 12th Inſtant; and that the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick were detained at Riga till ſuch Time only as the young Duke ſhall have ſafely reached the Ruſſian Territories. The new Empreſs of Ruſſia has ſettled an annual Penſion of 15000 Rubles upon the Dutcheſs of Holſtein, Dowager of the late Adminiſtrator. Count Sparr, Captain of a Man of War in the Service of Sweden, arrived here ſome Days ſince, charged with a Letter from the King his Maſter, for the Magiſtrates of this City to obtain Leave to enliſt Seamen here for the Service of that Crown: He was accompanied by his Brother, who is ſince gone for Lubeck upon the ſame Errand. It is ſaid that his Daniſh Majeſty intends to have a Body of his Troops encamped, early in the Spring, in the Holſtein Country, where they are getting together large Proviſions of Forage, &c. for the Supply of their Magazines.

Berlin, Feb. 14, N. S. The King of Pruſſia was on the 7th with the Army at Jedovitz, two German Miles to the Left of Brunn. He was to march from thence on the 9th to join the Saxons, and march together to Znaim on the Frontiers of Auſtria. Count Podewils ſet out from hence on the 12th for Dreſden, and from thence is to paſs by Prague, in order to join the King his Maſter. The King has ſent for all his Aid de Camps and his Field Equipage. The Dutcheſs of Wirtenberg arrived here on the 5th.

Hague, Feb. 16, N. S. All the Letters from the Side of the Meuſe are full of the Preparations making for the Paſſage of a new Body of French Troops by Givet, through the Biſhoprick of Liege into Weſtphalia, to replace thoſe which France is ſaid to be drawing out of that Country to reinforce Marſhal Broglio in Bohemia.

Hague, Feb. 20, N. S. The Reports we had lately current here of an Action in Bohemia are not confirmed.
